BY DAVID J NICHOLSON

Argentario Golf Resort & Spa is nestled in a verdant valley near Porto Ercole, Southern Tuscany, only 90 minutes away from Rome International Airport.

It is a luxury, environmentally-friendly 5 star resort with 73 luxury rooms, 5 independent villas, an 18-hole golf course, an extensive MediSPA, Espace Wellness Centre and Health Club, sporting facilities, the gourmet Dama Dama Restaurant and the Club House Restaurant.

The Argentario Golf Club features 18 panoramic holes and has the "BioAgriCert" certification for its eco-compatibility. The golf course, which was opened in 2006, was designed by architect David Mezzacane and the professional golfer BaldoVino Dassù. The holes were subsequently shaped by Brian Jorgensen.

The Argentario Golf Club participates in Tuscany's "golf district" initiative, which allows for guests to play at special rates in the following golf courses: Golf Club Toscana, Punta Ala and Terme di Saturnia. These can be reached with less than a 2-hour trip from the Argentario Resort.

Testament to the quality of the course and the clubhouse, Argentario recently joined The PGA's growing list of exceptional branded resorts as the 'PGA National Italy' and 'PGA Golf Course Italy'.

The Argentario Golf Villas are an exclusive collection of bespoke luxury villas, boast ground-breaking design and views of the lagoon, sea and golf course that blend seamlessly into the landscape. Owners benefit from a range of amenities and services offered by Argentario
